McGovern Wins From Erne in Third Round

In a Hurricane Fight Before 14,000 People.

TERRY IS DOWN ONCE.

But the Brooklyn Terror Simply Arose Grinning.

The Swiss Champion Could Not Withstand Rushes.

McGovern Is Greatest Little Pugilist of the Age.

New York, July 17.—Last night in the presence of 14,000 persons in Madison Square Garden Terry McGovern, of Brooklyn, defeated Frank Erne, of Buffalo, the lightweight champion of the world. It was a hurricane fight from bell to bell, without a second's letup except when one of the contestants was lying on the floor of the ring. McGovern used the tactics he said he would. He rushed in on Erne at the very beginning and sent left and right in such quick succession that Erne, fast as he is, was nonplussed. Erne undoubtedly is the cleverer of the two, but his cleverers availed him nothing against the buildog rushes and flery attacks of the little featherweight champion. Erne, of little featherweight champion. Erne, of the fire worked up to a considerable extent by this time, promptly accepted, and the $1,000 was planed in the hands of E. W. Smith and the following addendum to the articles was signed:

"It is expressly understood and agreed that their fight at Tatter-fight at Tatter-fight at Tatter-fight at Tatter-sall's a decision. In the original articles there was a clause which stipulated that no decision be rendered if both men were on their feet at the end of the bout. This was changed last night, and Referee George Siler will be called upon to declare a winner and a loser when the big fight is over with.

In the rather heated argument which marked the meeting of Root's representative and Ryan last night at Tatter-sall's a decision. In the original articles there was a clause which stipulated that no decision. In the original articles there was a clause which stipulated that no decision. In the original articles there was a clause which stipulated that no decision. In the original articles there was a clause which stipulated that no decision. So Box is, was honpitissed. Errie undoubted; is the eleverer of the two, but his eleverness availed him nothing against the buildog rushes and fiery attacks of the little featherweight champion. Erne, of course, trained far below his usual weight, as he had agreed to fight Mogorer at 128, which is five pounds below the lightweight limit. In doing this many believed that the strain would be too much for the Buffalo man and that McGovern, who is rugged and tenacious, would surely beat him down. Many of the wise ones compared Erne's reduction of weight to that of Joe Walcott, when the latter trained down some years ago to 121 pounds in order to met Kid Lavigne in the lightweight class. Walcott made a mistake on that occasion, for Lavigne cut him to pieces. Last night Erne said that he weighed only 126½ pounds, but declared that he

It was now evident that Erne was now a beaten man, and McGovern started in to finish him. Terry sent a smash to the face which landed on Erne's nose, and with a couple of blows the little fellow paved the way for a knockout swing, but Erne's seconds seeing their man had already enough, threw up the sponge and saved the Swiss boxer from a knockout. Harry, "Kid Harris, of Chicago, and Tony Moran, of New York, were put on for ten rounds at catch weights in a preliminary bout. Harris was by far the eleverer, but Moran was fully fifteen pounds the heavier. Harris put Moran down early in the fight and outpointed him all the way. FIGHT BY ROUNDS.

Round 1-Terry rushed in and planted a left hook on Erne's face. He tried again, but was short. Both fiddled and Terry jumped in and sent left and right to head. Erne stabbed his left and crossed his head and then mixed it up at close range and exchanged left's and rights on head and Erne crossed his right to McGovern, flooring him. McGovern took the count, resting on one knee and was up, then swinging left and right to head. The lighting was now fast and furious. Erne's nose bleeding. After a rattling mixup Terry hooked his left to body with terrific force, shaking up Erne from his heels to his head. The bell found them in a hot rally. Hound 2-Terry rushed in, sending both hands to the head. Erne set his left to the face. Both landed right on head and went to a clinch, coming out on the breakaway. Terry hooked his right to the head, Erne countering with left. Terry rushed in again, and was cautloned for holding. Erne swung a hard right on Terry's head. Terry sent his right to the body and Erne made a wild swing, which missed the mark. Both were fighting at terrific pace, and the blows came as fast as hallstones in a July storm. Terry was jabbing and hooking lefts and rights to Erne's body, while Erne was punching him in the face. Terry took his medicine with a grin and still kept hammering on the body. At the bell Erne showed signs of weakness, while Terry as strong and runged.

Round 3-Terry rushed, but missed a late hall and hooking lefts and rights to Erne's body, while Erne was punching him in the face. Terry took his medicine with a grin and still kept hammering on the body. At the bell Erne showed signs of weakness, while Terry was strong and runged.

champion lay for nine seconds. When he got up Erne's face was covered with blood, but Terry was remorseless. The Brooklyn terror pounced on his opponent and rained lefts and rights on head, face and neck, while Erne was unable to send back a decent counter. Terry kept forcing him, and landed another hard stab over the heart, and with right and left to head, downed the Buffalo boy once more. Again Erne took nine seconds of the count, but he came up groggy and practically unable to defend bimself. Terry made another one of his rushes, but before he could put a finishing blow Erne's seconds threw up the sponge and saved their man from being knocked out. Time of round, two minutes, eight seconds.

M'GRAW BEST BATTER. Cooley and Jennings Tied at First-National League Averages.

New York, July 17 .- Batting averages in the National league have been simply swept off the face of the earth during the last two weeks, the percentages of the hitters going to smash all along the the hitters going to smash all along the line. Shut-outs and games with one, two or three hits have been the rule, and the pitchers have managed to cut down the slugging figures to the lightest basis in two or three years. After the smoke has cleared away an inspection of the records, up to last Thursday, will show Muggsy McGraw supreme as leading batsman with a percentage of 380. Nobody is batting as good as 400, and the downfail of Wagner and Lajoie has been something serrowful. Jake Beckley's fine percentage fell with the rest, and St. Jacob is now in fourteenth pince, with an average of 380. Forty-four men are batting over 300. Cincinnati furnishing six of the number.

200. Cincinnati furnishing six of the number.

The fielding records show Lou Criger lending the catchers, Bob Woods ranks sixth, and Heine Peitz twaffth. Powell easily leads the pitchers in the field, while Scott has handled more fielding chances in the box than any other twirier. Jennings and Cooley are tied for the lead at first base, Beckley showing in the middle of the list. Demont leads at second base, with Joe Quim but one point behind him, and Steinfeldt standing seventh. Irwin has a clear lead at third, and Steinfeldt shows up excellently. The havoc wrought by the small score games is most easily seen in the club rec-ords. Philadelphia leads with a percent-age of J02, a decided fall, while the Reds have suffered fearfully, dropping to 270 and sixth place in the column. Philadel-phia leads in sacrifices, and Brooklyn in stolen bases.

Brooklyn leads in fielding, the Reds tolen bases. Brooklyn leads in fielding, the Reds tanding sixth. New York has made 69 ouble plays, Cincinnati coming next with Cincinnati still leads in total extra bases, with 382 to 372 by Philadelphia and Chicago. Chicago leads in two-baggers. Pittsburg in triples and St. Louis in home runs. The individual slugging records show Hamis Wagner still leading. Flick and Mertes some distance to the rear. Sheckard has done the fastest work on the bases, according to the tables, Doyle second. The pitching records continue to boom the glory of one McGinnity. Of the Red pitchers Scott stands sixteenth, Breitenstein nineteenth and Hahn thirty-second.

TOD SLOAN'S SISTER Will Do a Variety Turn at the Red Men's Powwow.

Miss Sloan is a well-known variety actress and acrobat, whose daring leaps are well known in the show world. She is known on the stage as Blanche LaClare.

Tod did not know until recently that his sister was on the stage and was much mortified over the discovery. He made her a deed of a $15,000 home and offered to support her if she would quit the business. This offer she declined, remarking that her calling was just as honorable as his, if not more so, and in turn she agreed to keep him if he would relinquish his profession as a horse relinquish his profession as a horse jockey. Miss Sloan is a remarkably handsome woman and a great stage fa-

WHITE'S CAREER IS ENDED. One of the Gamest Men in the Ring May Never Fight Again.

Chicago, July 17.—Tommy White, the veteran feather weight and one of the gamest and most clever men in the ring, may never fight again. Injuries to his left ankle sustained in his recent fight in New York with Terry McGovern may prove permanent and compel the local boxer to quit the ring forever. So serious is the matter that his ten-round fight with Oscar Gardner, set for Aug. 13. before "Bat" Masterson's club in fight with Oscar Gardner, set for Aug.

13, before "Bat" Masterson's club in Denver, has been postponed indefinitely, with little hope of its being on within the next two months.

White was confined to his hed for three days after the fight with Mc-Govern, the first knockdown he received having badly injured his left ankle. He managed to hobble out after that and got a train for Chicago. The swelling did not go down after he reached this city and Tommy thought he could walk it out, as it did not give him much pain. For a time it was better, but a week ago it got worse and a couple of days ago White went to see Dr. McNamara about it. This widely-known follower of fighters and other athletes made a careful examination of the ankle, putting it under the X rays. It was then discovered that there was a sever rupture of the external lateral ligament of the ankle, a really serious injury for an athlete.

KANSAS NEWS.

The Eight Hour Law is Declared Valid and Good.

Judge Fischer Makes a Ruling in Labor's Behalf.

UPHOLDS THE STATUTE

Street Contractors of Kansas City, Ks., Will Suffer.

Strenuous Efforts to Have It Made Unconstitutional.

Kansas City, Kan., July 17 .- In the district court yesterday a motion was made by the attorneys of certain street contractors, who had been arrested charged with violating the Kansas eight hour law, to quash the indictments on the grounds of the unconstitutionality of the statute. Judge Fischer promptly overruled the motion and the law was held to be good and valid.

The several contractors, who were arrested on the complaints of State Labor Commissioner Lee Johnson, will now have to stand trial for violating the provisions of the law in that they required their employes on public work to work longer than the legally constituted working day. The contractors who were work longer than the legally constituted working day. The contractors who were defendants in the case are W. W. Atkin, M. G. Ella, R. J. Boyd, C. E. Dodson and C. Lovelace. If they are adjudged guilty all of the other contractors will inaugurate the eight hour working day in Kansas City, Kan.

The law which Commissioner Johnson is endeavoring to enforce was one passed at the instigation of union labor and it was expected to set the precedent for shorter working nours in all branches of labor by requiring its enforcement first upon public work over which the state only has control.

In Kansas City, Kan., there are possibly 509 men engaged in street improvement work almost the year around and an hour more or less means a good deal to the men who have to sweat for their salaries.

The contractors say that if they are forced to reduce the number of working hours and are not allowed to make a corresponding reduction of wages that they will necessarily have to raise the price of their work. This does not deter the friends of the law, however, from insisting upon its being lived up to and the offenders will be vigorously prosecuted.
